

Australia

Australia is a country made of people with all sorts of different:

Think about the positive aspects of living in a country full of variety and fill in the spaces with any ideas you come up with:

