MILTON COURT GETS $300,000 FACELIFT

The heritage-listed Milton Courthouse will receive a $300,000 facelift, the NSW Attorney General, Greg Smith SC, announced today.

“The Milton Courthouse has been operating since the late 1800s and this project will ensure it continues to serve the community well for many years to come,” Mr Smith said.

The project will include:

- replacement of the roof and guttering;
- repainting the interior and exterior of the building;
- a new courtroom air conditioning system;
- repairs to the building fabric including stitching of settling cracks; and
- new carpet.

The courthouse will close tomorrow, with the repairs and refurbishment project expected to take 14 weeks. During the construction period, Milton’s court list and registry operations will be transferred to Nowra Courthouse.

“The NSW Government is delighted to be preserving Milton Courthouse which is among the town’s most significant historical landmarks,” Mr Smith said.
